

The Cheerful
Philosopher

MAURICE DeMONT

Maurice DeMont is dead.
A good friend has been taken away.

Shortly after I came to Hollywood, about five years ago I was invited to the Breakfast Club.

Among other interesting men met that morning was the president of the club, Maurice DeMont. Just why, I don't know, but he seemed to think that I might some day be a worth-while friend or acquaintance. Not for a moment then, or at any time since, have I ever felt that there was any thought of selfishness in our association.

Several weeks later I went to the club again. It developed that Maurice had heard my humble message on the radio more than once. When I met him that morning he gave me a genuine surprise by asking if I would "accept" the office of "The Apostle of Friendship." I would not have been so modest as to decline at first, until he made me appear quite plausible. So, later I was inducted into office. A gold card, with the title engraved upon it, has since been a proud possession. Ever since, it has always been a source of pride and pleasure to try in every way to advance the interests of the club. This interest, particularly from a personal angle, was greatly increased whenever I would hear the "Anvil Chorus," singing its wondrously destructive anthem. To see any man originate the thought and carry to such a splendid completion the Los Angeles Breakfast Club was certain to arouse the cupidity and jealousy of more than one small soul. There were several.

It was the realization of this fact that caused Maurice DeMont to eliminate any thought of self and to insist that a nationally known and popular successor should be chosen to act as president. Dr. Rufus B. von Klein smid consented to act in this capacity, but after a few weeks was compelled to realize that his duties as President of the University of Southern California required all of his time. After his resignation the office was quietly resumed by the founder, who was functioning with renewed and increasing success when the hand of death removed him from the scene. But those who are the logical successors to assume the duty to "carry on" will be imbued with an added zeal. The lines are all laid down. Harold Link has always been the program manager and so, been largely responsible for the club's wonderful success. Under his able management, combined with his well deserved personal popularity, the future of this department is assured.

Mrs. Nan C. Norris, the social executive has, through her winning personality and truly splendid executive ability, made the club a popular rendezvous for all manner of successful entertainments. The members of the reception committee, F. W. Gollum, Fletcher Ford, A. Anderson, Arthur W. Drummett, Ray S. Webster, John E. Bauer and the always smiling Nick Harris, will continue to inject the spirit of the club into the heart and brain of every member and guest.

Dr. Bruce R. Baxter, the human and clever chaplain of the club, will surely be imbued with an added desire to perform his deeply appreciated duties. And, ever at his side, will be those truly loved members of the cloth, whose broadmindedness has so endeared them to every member—Dr. Stewart P. MacLennan and Dr. J. Whitcomb, ("Jimmy") Brougher, Jr.

To always meet you with a cheery smile and to execute any requirement, will be Assistant Treasurer Peter F. Fleming and his affable co-worker, George Powell, together with the smiling corps of young lady assistants and the best of corps of waiters in the country. So, everybody will "carry on" in the same sure way that Maurice's years of effort have outlined. May every blessing and good luck attend you.

But to those who have cared, who have watched the wide flung growth, the trees, the flowers, the birds, the horses and all that was theirs, the pavilion, the meaning of it all—to all of these, the "spirit" of Maurice will ever hover o'er every scene, every moment.

For a long time before departing from the members at "The Shrine of Friendship," to enable them to better meet the world with its many perplexities, the last offering was a poem, read by Maurice, generally one from the little book containing 365 worthy ones, compiled by Sidney Bourgoyne, called "Freindly Fellows."

SIERRA MADRE, COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

FRIDAY, JUNE 26, 1931

Southland's Chess Fans Gather Here

Over 200 Players Shift
Pawns Until Early
Sunday Morning

More than 200 chess fans from 37 California cities participated in the second annual Morphy Day Chess Carnival here on Saturday. The Masonic Temple was not large enough to hold all of the players who overflowed onto the terrace about the building.

Many who participated in last year's event returned and brought recruits. The visitors were delighted with their entertainment and with the character of events scheduled and the Morphy Day celebration here is now definitely fixed as one of the big annual chess events of the west.

CHAMPION PLAYS
A committee from the Chamber of Commerce of this city which sponsored the event, looked after entertainment of the visitors and supper was served in the early evening by a committee consisting of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hawks, W. E. Craig, C. B. Klunk, J. R. Thompson, Frank Spencer, Judge C. W. Forman, R. C. Copenhaver and Ernestine and Elizabeth Manning, of this city, assisted by Heinz Sells of Eagle Rock and Mrs. E. S. Moody, of Riverside.

Interest was added to the day's events by the presence and addresses of leading exponents of the game throughout the state, including George Goehler, champion of San Francisco, Cliff Sherwood, Chess editor of the Los Angeles Times and Long Beach Telegram, and Douglas Houghton of the Pasadena Star-News.

W. E. Craig, president of the Chamber of Commerce made a short address of welcome to the visiting players and their friends. State Champion Harry Borochow contributed probably the most interesting event—a simultaneous of 56 boards in which he won 40 games, drew 9 and lost 7. George G. Patterson referred to this event. Mrs. J. C. Hillman, president of the Pasadena Chess Club, was one of those to get a draw.

Miss Margaret Parker of Los Angeles and Robert Engle of Alhambra won book prizes offered by "The Chess Reporter" for being first to win or draw from Miss La Vieve M. Hines of Pasadena, woman champion of the west coast.

An overflow simultaneous of 10 to 15 boards was kept going on the veranda most of the evening by H. G. Cunningham, George Goehler, Noum Light and L. H. Heath.

The Sierra Madre players taking part in the various simultaneous events were: Mrs. L. H. High, George Kuznets, Edwin Scott and Billy Edwards, the latter drawing with the champion.

GALLERY LOOKS ON
Among those to win from the champion were H. D. Rader of San Gabriel and Ralph Syvertsen of Alhambra, who are regular attendants at the local Sunday afternoon meetings on the south veranda of the City Park House at Central and Hermosa avenues, and to which everyone is invited.

A big audience watched the afternoon events which included off-hand games, matches by groups of San Gabriel Valley and other sections, chief of them being the Orange County vs. Pasadena match which ended in a tie. C. J. Gibbs of Los Angeles played 23 games simultaneously, winning 8, losing three and drawing two.

The rapid transit elimination tournament attracted 40 entries, including almost all of the experts. (Continued on Page 5)

LITTLE FRIENDS HONOR
BARBARA JEAN ABLER
The younger set in Canyon Park enjoyed a party Wednesday given by Mrs. J. Abler of 546 Sturtevant Road, in honor of her daughter, Barbara Jean, four birthday. Miss Victoria Farr, Mrs. Lee Abler and Mrs. L. K. Layton assisted in amusing the kiddies.

The guests included little Mary Lou Ronge, Betty and Warren Schoonover of Riverside, Joan Thomas of Los Angeles and Charlotte Merzbacher of Texas.

HYNES SUNDAY SCHOOL
CLASS HERE FOR OUTING
A hiking and swimming party was enjoyed by Pilots' Sunday School class from Hynes Methodist Episcopal Church, at Canyon Park on Wednesday. The party included Mrs. Fred Sparks, their teacher; Ella Mae Richardson, Lucille Hines, Sarah Jackson, Mary Tifford, Norman Schilling, Henry Boltes, Myron Murray, Paul Murray, Rex Murray, Anna Kosman, Cecyl Wilde, Florence Keasley, Virginia Bussear, Mary Walker and Adair Anderson.

Miss Laura Merritt left on Thursday to spend several days at Laguna Beach, where she is building a beach home.

What's Your Idea For City's Float In Rose Parade?

Have you thought out your idea for Sierra Madre's float in the Tournament of Roses parade?

Some Sierra Madreans have—and forwarded them to the Chamber of Commerce expecting to win one of the prizes offered for the most original and appropriate suggestion for this city's entry in the New Year's Day rose pageant.

In all there will be 8 prizes offered by the chamber and local merchants.

The float idea must conform in a general way to the theme of the approaching tournament, "The Nations and Games in Flowers." This theme was decided upon by the tournament directors because of the Olympic games here next year which will bring hundreds of thousands of visitors from all over the world.

Save $20,000 By Insurance Rate Slash

Fire Companies Say Efficiency Caused Big Reduction

When the board of fire insurance underwriters leveled the local insurance rates to those enjoyed by Pasadena and other big municipalities that boast highly efficient paid fire departments, the board estimated that it had saved the citizens of Sierra Madre $20,000 a year on premiums, it has just been disclosed.

Insurable property here is fixed at $6,000,000, not only as an estimate by the insurance companies, but from actual figures on the books of the county assessor. The valuation figures shown by the latter source on land and improvements is given as $3,600,000, the improvements alone totaling $1,600,000. The tax rolls also showed a declaration of over $400,000 in personal property, said to represent less than half the actual amount.

The insurance companies have let it be known that they considered the reduced rates now effective here entirely justified, though they have been generously criticized by other cities of similar size and larger that have not made the effort that was made here to bring about the reduction.

It has been pointed out to these municipalities that Sierra Madre's volunteer fire department is the equal of many paid departments and that the people of this city have provided bond issues and elected officials who have made the matter of fire protection a subject of first importance and have carried through a comprehensive program of improvements to the water distribution system with the idea of fire prevention and control in mind.

VISITOR EN ROUTE HERE IS KILLED IN KANSAS ACCIDENT

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Adams of 40 North Lima street received a telegram from Dodge City, Kansas, on Wednesday, announcing the death of Mr. Adams' only daughter, Mrs. F. C. Blake.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake and two daughters, Helen and Josephine, were motoring from Columbus, Ohio, to spend the summer here with Mr. and Mrs. Adams, when they met with an accident at Dodge City, the details of which have not been received here. Mr. Blake and children will bring the body to Sierra Madre for interment in the Adams' plot, when Josephine, the youngest daughter, who was badly bruised, is able to leave a Dodge City hospital. Mrs. Blake is the sister of Roland Adams of this city.

MT. WILSON TAVERN BOUGHT BY HALPINS

Mr. and Mrs. George Halpin have purchased the Mount Wilson Tavern at the end of the car line on Mountain Trail from Mrs. Margaret Arthur. Mrs. Forrester and daughter who have been operating the Tavern have moved to Dr. Mary Groth's home on East Highland avenue.

NEW BOULEVARD LIGHTS WILL SHINE

Sierra Madre's artistic new directional signs at Sierra Madre Avenue, Baldwin Avenue and Foothill boulevard are expected to be in operation on Sunday. Execution of the contract awarded some time ago by the City Council was begun Wednesday by the Neon Sign Company with announcements by officials of that concern that the work would probably be completed on Saturday.

The 'Gallery' Attracting Attention

Southland Is Coming To Look Upon This City
As Real Art Center

Unique as one of the few successful experiments of its kind, Sierra Madre's "Little Gallery" in the City Hall, combining artistic appreciation and progressive civic spirit, is attracting attention all over California.

"Sierra Madre, noted for its salubrious climate and superb beauty, is now becoming famous for its progressiveness and civic spirit," comments the writer of a recent complimentary article in "Mercury," official magazine of the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Reviewing the Mary Elizabeth Schleussner exhibit of 26 desert paintings, the magazine observes:

"So far as Mercury knows, it is the only city in Southern California that can claim a civic art commission functioning with anything like a near approach to perfection."

The free art exhibitions open to the public day and night under the auspices of the city itself have drawn attention from far and wide.

At a recent Council meeting, Mrs. Fred Griebow, chairman of the Woman's Club art section, and accredited moving force behind the gallery idea, showed reams of newspaper publicity received by exhibits in the past six months. Visitors from such widely distant spots as Buenos Aires and Nome are among hundreds who have signed the register.

And now Sierra Madre artists through connections established by gallery publicity, are going to take part in the most modern of advertising ideas—a series of one-man exhibits in a Glendale automobile showroom.

If bone-dry ordinances and beautiful paintings could mix with harmony, the Neushafer company of Glendale decided, then canvases and graceful new automobiles should harmonize. So, when the company's new showroom was opened early this month, eight canvases by Henry Ivins Hawthurst graced its walls.

This month's exhibit of pictures and cars has been so successful that two more Sierra Madre painters, Alfred James Dewey and Albert Marshall, will each be asked to give an exhibit in the near future, according to word just received.

Couple Celebrate 65th Anniversary Of Wedding Here

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick O. Nichols of 45 Olive street, celebrated their sixty-fifth wedding anniversary with a reception and dinner at their home on Sunday. Four generations of the family were represented among the 35 guests present. Beautiful baskets of flowers bearing the date of their wedding and many useful gifts were presented the bride and groom, who are both 85 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. Nichols were married in the hills of Connecticut where they were born, at the age of 20. Twenty-three years ago they decided that Sierra Madre was the ideal place in which to live and have not regretted their decision. Mr. Nichols is a veteran of the Civil War, serving in the three years' army of the Potomac under General Grant and McClellan.

The family present at the anniversary included their daughter, Mrs. Irving N. Ward, Mr. Ward, and their daughters and son-in-law, Miss Beatrice Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Russell of Sierra Madre; their son, Robert Nichols and family; and a daughter, Mrs. E. Heldrich and family of Los Angeles.

FELLOWSHIP CLUB WILL HOLD DANCE TONIGHT

The Young People's Fellowship club of the Episcopal church will hold another dance at the parish house this evening at 8:45. Host and hostesses for the evening will be Misses Beatrice McClelland, Jane Holland, Catherine McClelland, Angeline PerLee, Babbie Bains, Edith Hawks and Craig McLaughlin and Donald Pegler. Mrs. S. M. McClelland and Mrs. John H. Robertson will be matronesses. Everyone is cordially invited.

SHIPPEY'S ENTERTAIN TEACHERS AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Shippey entertained several teachers of the Sierra Madre Grammar School with a dinner party at their home, 297 Neher Drive, last Wednesday evening. Among the eight dinner guests present were Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, principal of the school; Miss Mary Pfahler, musical advisor; Miss Florence Lusted, art director, and Mrs. Ellen Col Barker, health supervisor.

Full House At Offering Of Players

Appreciative Audience Sees Three Dramas and Hears Celebrity

An appreciative audience that filled the school auditorium witnessed the presentation by the Community Players of three one-act dramas and heard an inspiring address by the city's newest celebrity, Burr McIntosh, on Tuesday night.

Mr. McIntosh stepped before the footlights between the first and second presentations and found a welcome from his new neighbors that must have warmed his heart. He was given an ovation at the conclusion of his message of good cheer.

When wives begin to want to wear tights "For Art's Sake," it is high time for husbands to find out just who or what "art" is. The cast for this clever and original farce, written and directed by David Buchanan, was well-chosen. James N. Hawks, played Jim, the badly henpecked husband, who has his hidden cave-man instincts pointed out by his friend, George, who was played by Dave Buchanan. Mrs. James N. Hawks played opposite her husband as Ethel, his wife and Mrs. W. R. Morgan was cast as Grace, George's wife.

"Job's Kinsfolk," an emotional offering, by Loretta Bailey, featuring "poor whites" in a southern mill town, was exceptionally well played by Mrs. J. C. Dickson, Mrs. W. R. Morgan, Mary Young, Mrs. D. Vanderpool and Richard Young.

If one desires a complete rest, Clarence Reed, played by R. M. Finlayson, has decided that a nursing home with blonde and brunette nurses and a maid of all work is no place for any man. Miss Catherine Sinnott, Mrs. H. Randolph Wood, Mrs. Victor C. Hill and Mrs. R. M. Finlayson were the other players in this hilarious comedy, "The Rest Cure."

A social hour for the players was arranged after the performance by Mrs. W. R. Humphries, wife of W. R. Humphries, president of the organization.

ANOTHER WOMAN IS ADMITTED TO ROLL OF LEGION POST 297

Mrs. Gertrude Humphries, Sierra Madre's very pleasant and efficient public health nurse, and Harry Boob were admitted to American Legion Post 297 at its meeting this week. Mrs. Humphries makes the fifth World War nurse in the local legion. Mrs. Augusta Coates, Mrs. Lella Roberts, Mrs. Jack Mitchell and Mrs. R. O. Walker are the other women members of the local post.

Good Crowd Turns Out for First Card Party by Firemen

A large crowd attended the first of a series of card parties to be given by the volunteer firemen and auxiliary on the fourth Wednesday of each month at the Fennel estate, scene of the Wisteria Fete.

The parties will feature bridge and five hundred and will continue throughout the five-year lease held by the firemen on the Fennel homestead. The residence has been converted into a clubhouse for the purpose of these and other entertainments.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hibbs won the first and second prizes at bridge in the initial party. First prize at five hundred went to Mrs. Tony Delvecci and second to Mrs. Louie Karger. Refreshments, which will be a feature of all of these affairs, were served on Wednesday night and were pronounced excellent.

FIREMAN CATCH BRUSH FIRE IN NICH OF TIME

Prompt action of the fire department checked to a small area a brush fire of unlearned origin, which started at the foot of the mountains on the Lannan Ranch on Grand View avenue, Wednesday afternoon.

Chief W. D. Richards said the blaze probably was caused from a discarded greasy rag thrown in dry weeds and grass.

Residents are warned to promptly burn all greasy cloths in their incinerators to avoid fires, which are easily started in warm weather.

Jack Osgood, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Osgood of 617 West Montecito avenue, graduated from Oregon State College at Corvallis on June 1. He will return home this week from San Francisco, where he has been visiting since his graduation.

FIX JULY 22 FOR ACCEPTANCE OF CANYON PARK BIDS

At a meeting of the City Council on Wednesday night, July 22nd was fixed as the date for acceptance of bids for the paving streets and roads in the Canyon Park area. The date was originally fixed for June 24th, but a postponement became necessary when the title insurance company discovered errors in titles of some of the properties necessary to be acquired for rights of way.

City Engineer E. J. Lynde submitted a report on the improvement of East Grand View avenue, estimating the cost for grading and construction of a storm drain at approximately $18,000. The report was referred to the committee on Streets, for checking and their recommendation.

New Home Of 15 Rooms Is Under Way

Many Modern Features
Planned For Fine
Fairbanks Dwelling

A permit has been issued and ground broken for a 15-room American type dwelling at Sunny-side and Mariposa avenues for Mrs. Carrie Fairbanks.

It will be one of the most modern and complete homes in Sierra Madre and is being reared on a corner lot 150 x 150 feet on the north side of Mariposa avenue, which is to be landscaped in harmony with the beautiful building.

The two-story structure will contain four baths, with a morning room on the upper and a sun room on the ground floor. The contract calls for parquet floors throughout, with beamed ceilings on the first floor and paneled walls and ceilings on the second floor.

The plans were prepared by and the contract for the building awarded to O. R. Shearer of this city. The home is to be ready for occupancy in the early fall.

Other building permits have just been issued to C. E. May for the erection of a cottage on Woodland drive, and to W. B. Clark for a two-story addition to cost $1,300 at 425 North Sunny-side avenue, for George Asakura.

Short Illness Ends In Death Here Of Mrs. Lulu E. Murphy

Mrs. Lulu Edith Murphy, wife of A. B. Murphy of Dad's Service Station, North Baldwin avenue, passed away at 1:30 a.m. on Thursday after a month's illness. Mrs. Murphy was born 55 years ago in Lamar, Mo., and has been a resident of Sierra Madre for the past year. She was a daughter of the late Dr. John W. Dunn of Kentucky. Besides her husband she is survived by three daughters, Ruth Murphy of New York, who arrived recently to reside with her parents; Mrs. I. W. Abbott of San Diego, and Mrs. Carl Pate of San Louis Obispo; two sons, Robert Rae Murphy of Sierra Madre and Elmer B. Murphy of San Pedro; two brothers, A. S. Dunn of Spokane, Wash., and B. Dunn of Capitola, Calif., and two sisters, Mrs. J. W. White of Spokane, Wash., and Mrs. F. C. Gokwer of Seattle, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Dunn, Mr. Murphy and Ruth Murphy were with her at the time of her death. Mr. Murphy is a retired Baptist minister.

Funeral services will be held at 3:30 p.m. Saturday from Bethany Church with Dr. R. A. Jensen of the First Baptist Church of Long Beach, officiating. William M. Bond, manager of the Sierra Madre Funeral Chapel, was in charge of the arrangements. Interment will be held at San Gabriel cemetery.

Plan To Beautify Shopping Section Is Advanced A Step

With completion of a map showing positions to be occupied by electroliners, planned for future installation in the downtown district, the project of planting cocoas plumosas palms in the business district took another step ahead this week.

Studying the map, compiled by the city engineering department, members of the planning commission will "spot" the palms, estimate their number and cost, and soon place the plan before local business men, who are expected to bear cost of purchasing the trees.

STREET ASSESSMENT BONDS DELINQUENT ON THURSDAY
Elmer A. Green, Deputy City Treasurer, reminds the public that interest on street assessment bonds must be paid at the City Hall on or before July 2, in order to avoid penalties and the danger of foreclosure following delinquency.

Local Team Ends Season Undeclared

League Leaders Wallop
Puente — Bethany
Laces Legionnaires

Puente's Legion baseball team took a 16-9 lacing at the hands of the undefeated Sierra Madreans on Friday night but gave the large crowd of local fans at the school athletic field many a thrill before the score became top-sided.

Sierra Madre's mainstay in the box, Pratt, was away on his vacation and when Puente stepped out with a 3 to 1 lead in the early innings, many of the home town admirers began to fear the chain of victories would be broken. There was wild excitement when the home towners evened the score to 3 to 3, but Puente went into the lead again and for two innings the score stood 5 to 3 in their favor. Later it was increased to 7 to 4 and the stands were in a constant state of feverish excitement. But in the seventh inning Sierra Madre went into the lead and for the remainder of the game merely clinched its victory.

The game was the last of the first half of the season's schedule. Sierra made came through the first half without loss of a single game, having defeated every team in the legion league, which it leads by a comfortable margin.

The score of Friday's contest follows:

One of the best ball games of the season was witnessed at the school grounds on Wednesday night when the Sierra Madre All-Star team was defeated by the All-Stars of Arcadia, by a score of 8 to 2. The slab offerings of Loftus and Reitz of the Arcadian's baffled the Sierra Madre batters, Jack Young being the only Sierra Madrean able to solve the delivery of either pitcher. Young made 2 hits, he also made two circuit catches. Pratt, mound stand-by of the local legion team, allowed the visitors only 8 hits, but these coupled with errors by

NEW NEIGHBORS FIND OLD FRIEND IN BURR MCINTOSH

Breaking bread with 40 of his new neighbors among members of the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club as a guest of that organization at its luncheon on Tuesday, Burr McIntosh was hailed as an old friend might have been and the warmth of the greeting he received left no doubt that he had found a place in the hearts of everyone of his "neighbors". All doffed their coats, the meal was excellent as always and when the "cheerful philosopher" was called upon by President Waverly E. Pratt he was in rare form, radiating cheerfulness and good will.

He told of his first visit to Sierra Madre more than 26 years ago as a guest at the ranch of his old friend Charles Hastings and of a longing through the years to come to the quiet and peace of this quaint, neighborly city where he has found contentment.

"At times," he said, "it seems quite impossible that with the beauty, peace and quiet we enjoy here 'away from it all' we are less than 40 minutes from the heart of a great, throbbing city. I already feel I am a permanent fixture here and look forward to the next year as one of the very best and most important of my life."

Mount Lassen Will Burst Into Flame

Quiet and safe for the past 13 years, the crater of Lassen
Peak will again burst into fire, smoke, and explosiveness on the afternoon and evening of July 25.
But old man Vulcan in his habitat in the inner recesses of the peak will have nothing to do with it, for his mortal brothers on the outside have arranged for this eruption without even consulting the volcanic flame breather.

It will be staged with smoke bombs, rockets, and flares as the spectacular feature of the Lassen Volcanic National Park dedication scheduled for July 24, 25 and 26.

There will be two performances, one a smoke eruption at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of July 25th, and the other a rocket and flare eruption at 9 o'clock on the night of that day.

It will be of such vast proportions that it is estimated it will be visible for 80 miles. Tons of explosives will be carted to the crater days in advance and attached to wires by means of which the operators will control the eruptions.

The dedication will mark the completion of the scenic loop highway through the park and the opening to the public of a vast area of recreational wonderland and geological phenomena in Northeastern California. The dedication will be under the sponsorship of the State Chamber of Commerce.

Hitting The Public

The Wickersham Commission has made another report in which it discovers that the country is suffering from too much politics and too little prosecution of law violators. It recommends that the public prosecutors, Federal and State, should be selected with less regard to political affiliations and puls. Criticize the Wickersham Commission all you want to but if you will take time to read the recommendations it makes you will have to agree that they are hitting the public pretty hard —telling what really ails us.

Fire Flames

By one of the boys

THE hot weather has already brought a fire alarm but good fortune saved the day. The fire on East Grand View on Tuesday was out before it got a good start. The only hint of real excitement was when Vin Fleming's car dug it's way into the sand along the side of the road.
Vin looked forlorn as he tried to get out, but when Police Chief McMillan discovered his plight, "Mac" called for aid. With the help of a rope and Jim's car, Vin was able to get back to his grain and fertilizer.

Bob Babbitt and Harlan Gerlach don't seem to have much to say about the close call they had when they went exploring and gold hunting. Harlan dug out to the beach to wear off the thought of it.

The wives of the brave lads met on Friday and the session lasted until the usual early morning hour. And STILL the ladies were not called to the phone. It is difficult to determine whether the ladies are getting even with the men or whether the men are happy over the ladies' decision to stay late. It does allow a good excuse for the future.

Everything is going fine at the Bailey Canyon job, as well as the work at the Wistaria grounds.
The Chief discarded his little shovel and has taken to hauling rock and work of a more strenuous nature. "Bill" wants it noted that the little shovel was suggested by Norris and that if we had observed closely, we would have seen that George used one of the same size and caliber.
Anyway they both are vitally interested in the work up there and we must admit that.

With the work up there and the management of the ball team, Hibbs has his share of the joy and grief. Lee can be found along the side lines at the games, rooting and instructing his players.
He is very proud of his team, particularly the fielding of Norris. He says that George can chase a ball to the fence as expertly as any big league rookie.

And now with a series of card games in progress, there is another outlet for the "pep" of the really energetic. These games are to be held on the fourth Wednesday of each month, and will be played at the Fennel home on Carter avenue—scene of the Wistaria Fete.

FIRE'S OUT.

Home

Home is a Man's Castle, a Woman's Heaven, a Child's Garden of Memories. Because there is a sentiment about home which cannot be blurred by the sharpest satire or the most subtle cynicism, business lives; for business derives its nourishment mainly from the home. And every year, despite the gossip of lost love and broken troths and the crumbling foundations of marriage, a couple of million young people decide that Destiny intended them for each other. It's their home making that gives vitality to business. It's the pots and pans, the lamps and pillows and the kiddie carts they buy, and seventeen thousand, six hundred and ninety-four trifles besides, that keeps money in circulation. Home making is a positive boon to business. Why, it's a business in itself!

BIGGEST FOURTH CELEBRATION AT FAMOUS ROSE BOWL

In announcing their plans for their annual celebration to be staged at the Pasadena Rose Bowl on the evening of July Fourth,
The Pasadena Fire Department believe that this, the seventh annual affair, will be the biggest of them all.

The pyrotechnical display this year will feature "The Great Seal of the State" outlined in a mammoth set piece of brilliant fire in exact reproduction. "The Bear Flag" symbolic of the State of California. A scene depicting the early life of the West, entitled
"The Pony Express" and "Prowlers of the Sage" a scene showing an old prospector with his burro amid desert surroundings.
For the youngsters "The Performing Monkey" a motion picture comedy in fireworks, and surprise features will be shown.

In between these wonderful works of the pyrotechnical experts, the sky over the Rose Bowl will be kept alight with bursting rockets, star shells, bombs, serpentines, flares and novelties that have never been seen in this part of the country, making up an hour of the most brilliant pyrotechnical display yet attempted.

The circus part of the program which will again consist of a three-ring circus will include many high class acts. There will be a number of sensational ones included in this part of the program which precedes the fireworks display and which is a complete show of its own, both shows being for the one admission price.

Chief W. D. Richards of the Sierra Madre Fire Department announced this morning that tickets for the Pasadena firemen's event may be had at the fire station in this city.

wanis club sent Dr. McCann as

Vested Choir At Ascension Church Gives A Surprise

A large congregation had a surprise at the Church of the Ascension last Sunday when a vested choir entered singing, in procession.

Among the singers were Mrs. Hawks, Mrs. H. I. Hawhurst, Miss Edna Green, Mrs. Louis Millar, Miss Catherine McClelland, Miss Beatrice McClelland, Miss Cecil Price, Craig McLaughlin and Louis Millar. Bennie Lyon was crucifer.

The service was beautifully sung, the anthem being Harker's "Grant, We Beseech Thee." Mrs. Frances Kitzman, who has many friends in Sierra Madre, is organist and choir mistress.

Members of the congregation have expressed deep appreciation of the kind service of Mrs. Floyd who has been organist for the past two and a half years.

In the evening the Young People's meeting took the form of an enjoyable supper. Dean Bode and his daughter Catherine being guests of honor.

Miss C. F. Holden of 213 North Auburn avenue is leaving today for Altamonte, Ill., where she will spend the summer.

Mrs. Clinton Turner and daughter Shirley of Magnolia, Md., have arrived to spend two months with Mrs. Turner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mercer of 258 North Adams street.

What To Plant About a Pool

IT IS the informal pool which offers the greatest opportunity for planting about its margins, and a pleasing background planting will make the pool more interesting. In placing plants about the pool it is best to keep them in groups and not to plant out the entire margin of the pool. There should be some space where one can walk right up to the water's edge.

Plants should be selected according to soil conditions and location. The natural waterside plants, those which love a moist or boggy soil, are not suited to dry locations, and unless provision is made to keep the soil moist, only those which will grow well where moisture conditions planted about the margins of a pool: Hardy Asters, Astilbes, Hibiscus, Lemon Lily, Japanese Iris, Lobelia, Mistleflower and Snake-root. Many of these are tall growers and their height should be considered in their placing.

Hardy Grasses are frequently used at the edge of the pool, especially for backgrounds. The best of these are: Miscanthus sinensis gracillimus and Variegated Ribbon Grass.

Where low woody vines and shrubs are needed to sprawl over stones or banks the following are useful: Japanese Honeysuckle, Matrimony vine, Memorial Rose, Periwinkle and Evergreen Bittersweet.

Avoid using too many varieties if you want a unified or restful effect as opposed to a "spotty" appearance. A few varieties planted in masses, if carefully selected and happily placed, will make the pool attractive at all times.

THE LANDSCAPE GARDEN

are average should be selected.

Where moisture conditions are average the following perennials are good for planting between rocks or for ground cover along the margin of the pool: Alyssum in variety, Pinks, Phlox subulata (Moss Pink), Sedums in variety. For taller more upright perennials one may select varieties according to height and color of flower preferred.

Where the soil is moist but not bog soil the following perennials are very good subjects to be

PILGRIMAGE SEASON WILL BE OPENED ON JULY 9

Opening date of the eleventh annual season of the world-famous Pilgrimage Play in Hollywood has been set for Thursday evening, July 9, it has just been announced. By that time the new $200,000 Pilgrimage Play amphitheatre will be in readiness and will be found to be the most comfortable outdoor playhouse in the world.

Chose Sierra Madre For Their Wedding

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Church of the Ascension by Rev. Arnold Bode at noon Tuesday, when Miss Bernice Elizabeth Grozinger, daughter of Mrs. Martha E. Grozinger of Long Beach, became the bride of William Sherman Wineman, son of Mrs. Jane Wineman of Long Beach. The bridegroom has been a friend of Dean Bode since old Sunday School and swimming hole days, when Rev. Bode was rector of a Long Beach church. The couple not only wanted the ceremony performed by their old friend, but in the delightful environment of Sierra Madre.

The bride was lovely in pink chiffon and black lace with a pink picture hat and carried pink roses and lily of the valley. She was attended by Miss Mary A. Wilkinson of Los Angeles. F. Wilbur Wineman, brother of the groom, served as best man. In the wedding party were both mothers, Mrs. Rilla Berlin and Ralph Druhl of Long Beach.

Barrymore Comes As Embodiment of Evil

"Svengali," starring John Barrymore, which will be shown this evening and Saturday at Janet Malbon's Arcadia Theatre, is one of few characters of fiction to take a real place in the consciousness of the world. Stepping out of Du Maurier's famous novel, "Trilby," which won such sensational acclaim as a stage play a generation ago, Mephisto Rasputin stands as the embodiment of the evil.

Sunday and Monday three of the screen's outstanding comedy favorites are featured in "Laugh and Get Rich," a breezy film hit. They are Edna May Oliver, legitimate stage star who scored sensationally in "Cimarron," Hugh Herbert, one of the fastest-moving character actors, and Dorothy Lee, diminutive favorite of film audiences.

A big double feature program will be presented Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with "Good Bad Girl" and "Hot Heiress." The latter presents a delightful old-fashioned love story in a snappy, ultra-modern setting. Selected short subjects top every program.

Surroundings Here Impress Visitors

Dr. A. W. Jurrissen, chemist for the Shell Oil company, who with his wife, has been residing at the Bella Vista Terrace for the past three months, left on Wednesday to reside temporarily in Wilmington. In a letter to R. D. VanHorne, Dr. Jurrissen writes: "We have enjoyed our stay in Sierra Madre where Mrs. Jurrissen regained her health. The surroundings are lovely and Sierra Madre is one of the most congenial towns in California. It reminds us so much of the old country. I am sure we will return here."

IOWA AND ILLINOIS TO HOLD SUMMER REUNIONS

Every Iowan in the West is included in the wide open call to meet the other Hawkeyes in Bixby Park, Long Beach, (Iowa's Western Capital) all day Saturday August 8th, 1931, for the annual summer outing at the beach. The Illinois summer reunion will be held all day Saturday, July 18th, in Bixby Park. This will be the only summer picnic under the auspices of the "Illinoisans" and all the "Suckers" are urged to rally.

There comes a time when nothing holds the rare promise of rare joy as a quiet evening at home.

New Rector Here Gets Call From Big Beach Delegation

Nearly one hundred old friends motored up from Long Beach Sunday afternoon to pay a visit to Dean Bode, their former rector for over ten years.

The party seemed to fill the Church of the Ascension. Dean Bode welcomed them and told them of the history of the church, making special mention of Dr. Gresham, whose family is well-known in Long Beach. The party sang "Onward Christian Soldier" and "Hear Us, Heavenly Father" and Dean Bode played a few pieces on the fine organ.

Woman's Club Notes

By MRS. WAVERLY E. PRATT

THE color of gorgeous flowers, the poetry of gracious words of appreciation by Mrs. E. E. Bacon, retiring club president, the harmony of lovely music, the artistry of dramatic impersonations—these were the interwoven theme of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club closing meeting of the year 1930-31. It concluded Wednesday, June 24, the most successful regime of Mrs. E. E. Bacon and ushered in the beginning of Miss Virginia May Jones as president of this important cultural club.

As a setting for the event the stage was transformed into a fairland bower with many Kenia palms, masses of greenery, brilliant hued gladioli with contrasting blue delphinium, a profusion of white shasta daisies and tall vari-colored candles artistically arranged by Mrs. H. B. Hersey and Mrs. Waverly E. Pratt with Mrs. F. P. Conard assisting.

The only cloud on an otherwise gloriously sunny sky was caused by the absence and illness of Mrs. Bacon, beloved club president whose winning qualities, innate ability and sincerity have endeared her to all club members—and which has enabled her to close the year with banners flying.

A gracious letter of appreciation was sent by Mrs. Bacon in which she thanked all for the co-operation and harmony which has existed throughout the year. Miss Laura E. Cadmus, vice-president, charmingly presided during the afternoon and following the annual reports of officers, departments and committees, presented Lovetta Hicks Pratt, dramatic reader and impersonator who has appeared before many large clubs, for the afternoon program. Mrs. Pratt gave a most intensely dramatic number, a cutting from the well-known book "The Sign of the Cross" by Barrett Wilson. She was ably accompanied at the piano with a musical background by Mrs. Myrtle Hill.

A very beautiful and impressive ceremony in charge of Mrs. H. B. Hersey and Mrs. Pratt marked the momentous event of the burning of the mortgage on the club house. Three large candles were used by Mrs. Pratt, white, yellow and pink, which she explained—the white as symbolic of the luminous past of the club, the yellow the golden present and the pink the rosy future. The flame of light typified the warmth and love in the hearts of the club women of the Sierra Madre Woman's club.

To the strains of the "Funeral March," played by Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Hersey lighted the mortgage and as it burned the smoke wafted out and breathed a benediction over all—the grand consummation of a deep desire that was in the hearts of all our club women.

After the last wisps of smoke had vanished Miss Cadmus sang the triumphant song "Praise Be To The Father." With lowered rosy lights and to the music of "Now the Day is Over" Mrs. Pratt read:

"Now the year is over;
We have done our best—
And to others' guidance
We now leave the rest."

Thus closed the successful regime of Mrs. Bacon in the club's presidency. Mrs. Harriet Wright, president emerita, was the installing officer and with an affecting speech, installed Miss Jones, president; Mrs. W. C. Dalzell, first vice-president; Mrs. Nestor Young, second vice-president; Miss Edna Green, recording secretary; Mrs. G. S. Bovard, corresponding secretary; Mrs. May Farman, treasurer; Mrs. M. R. McBurney, auditor; and the following directors: Mrs. Woodson F. Jones, Mrs. Milford Thompson, Mrs. Emile Smith, Mrs. George Lehner, Mrs. Waverly E. Pratt, Mrs. Frank Hart, Mrs. J. M. Campbell.

With the installation of Miss Jones as president, with her apprenticeship in its affairs and with her devotion to the welfare of the club, we have delivered the guiding of our destinies into conscientious and capable hands. Miss Jones responded with a talk in which she used "cooperation" as the theme.

C—for charity.
O's—for obstacles to be overcome.
P—for perseverance.
E—for earnestness.
R—for reasonableness.
A—for ambition.
T—for time spent.
I—for interest in club activities and community affairs.
N—for the need of all to co-operate.

After the installation the meeting was adjourned to the tea room where Mrs. F. B. Seeley served tea.

Home Runs: Young, Silcott; 3 base hits, Mahoney, Holmes; Struck out by Loftus 11, Reitz 6, Pratt 8. Bases off balls: Pratt 4, Reitz 1.

The Bethany Church team gave the Sierra Madre Legion team of the City League an unmerciful lacing on Monday night, the score being 23 to 6. The younger players of the church team fielded fast, batted and ran bases like fiends and Jack Jensen's pitching was all a mystery to the Legionnaires. A big crowd saw the game.

AU REVOIR MAURICE

By BURR MCINTOSH

But, for whatever reason, the one which was the last to be read, at the close on Wednesday, June 17th, was one that he had learned to care for from often having heard me offer it. This was Maurice's last offering to his beloved Los Angeles Breakfast Club:

FRIENDSHIP

By Edgar A. Guest

I believe in friendship, I believe in trees, I believe in hollyhocks, swaying in the breeze, I believe in sunshine and roses, white and red And babbling brooks and rivers, and blue skies overhead; I believe in laughter, I believe in love, I believe the daffodils believe in God above.

I am no unbeliever, I know that men are true, I know the joy in summertime, when skies above are blue, I know there is no earthly power, could shape a budding rose, Or bring a daisy to bloom, with all that wisdom knows;

It could not fashion if it would, the humblest blade of grass Or stretch a living carpet, where weary travelers pass.

I believe in friendship, for I have found it good, I believe in laughter, for I have understood, My faith is founded on the years and all that I have seen, Something of God, I've looked upon, wherever I have been, Within a swamp but yesterday, a lily smiled at me, And only He, could put it there, to bloom for me to see.

It's terrible what the heat will do. It caused all of these to come to be, a couple of days ago:

IT MUST BE GREAT

It must be great to be a Mountain.

It must be great to be the Sea.

Or just a laughing, sprinkling Fountain.

That tries to please, both you and me.

It must be great and grand and bully,

To be a thousand other things.

If you are deaf and so, can fully, Enjoy what our Mindy sings.

There was a time, when voices rose,

In rild, joyous song.

"How dry I am!" And then, the pose,

And laughter, loud and long.

But, came the time, when all was dark,

In this "Land of the Free."

And now they shout, to those who hark—

Cry "Oh! Say! Can you see?"

There have been lands, all o'er the earth.

Which, for some reason would excel

All others, for especial worth,

For Wealth, or Beauty, Magic Spell—

Or teachings of a padre.

But I have found, near mountain side,

'Neath shelt'ring trees and laughing streams,

The spot where Peace and Love abide,

To realize my fondest dreams—

Here, in Sierra Madre.

THUNDER SHOWER BRINGS ONLY A TRACE OF RAIN

A thunder shower that swept along the mountain side yesterday afternoon brought a trace of rain, but not enough to register at either the city pumping plant or at the U. S. weather station on Scenic Point. During June .09 inches of rain fell in Sierra Madre, making the seasonal total 17.13 inches as against 17.12 at this time last year.

Old Resort Taken Over By Local Man

George Hapgood Buys And Assumes Management Of Orchard Camp

Orchard Camp, on the Mt. Wilson Trail, one of the largest and oldest resorts in the Angeles Forest, has been purchased by George Hapgood of this city, who assumed control of the property on Sunday.

Monday morning the new owner began an extensive overhauling of the place which he announces will make it one of the most up-to-date resorts in Southern California. The entire property is to be remodeled, redecorated and refurnished.

The sale transferred the lodge, cabins and the live stock, including horses, mules and burros. The title was given by Mrs. Harriet Strain, of Hermosa Beach, who acquired the property last fall from Philip Hartman, the former proprietor, now residing in Chicago. The 740 acres of real estate on which the camp is located are the property of Mrs. Margaret Reynolds.

Mr. Hapgood, with O. W. Carlson, also of this city, has been operating a camp and a general store at Templeton on the Coast Route and has recently disposed of his interest. Orchard Camp will be under his immediate direction.

Clarence Noshier, Roy Shuttler, Art Evans, Collin Hill and Art Embree attended the 18th district meeting of the American Legion at Pomona on Friday night after the baseball game.
